New Braunfels Utilities Invites Community to Participate in the Annual Imagine a Day Without Water Campaign

(New Braunfels, TX – October 21, 2019) – New Braunfels Utilities (NBU) will again participate in the nationwide “Imagine a Day Without Water” campaign to raise the awareness of the value of water. October 23, 2019 has been designated as this year’s “Imagine a Day Without Water.” Throughout the month of October, NBU has highlighted through social media the value of water and how it enhances life.

On Wednesday, October 23, 2019, from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m., NBU and the Headwaters at the Comal will host a FREE Do-It-Yourself Rain Barrel Workshop followed by a tour and history of the grounds at the Headwaters at the Comal, located at 333 East Klingemann Street. Participants need to bring a 32-gallon, heavy duty trash can or other large container to follow along with the demonstration. All other materials will be provided. Participants are encouraged to visit facebook.com/newbraunfelsutilities, find the “DIY Rain Barrel Workshop and Tour” event, and click “going.”

About New Braunfels Utilities:

Dedicated to excellence in service, New Braunfels Utilities is one of 2,000 community-owned, nonprofit public power electric utilities in the nation. The mission of New Braunfels Utilities is to enhance the quality of our community by providing innovative, essential services. Governed by a Board of Trustees comprised of local residents appointed by the New Braunfels City Council, New Braunfels Utilities is committed to being a recognized and trusted community partner, providing electric, water, and waste water services. Utility revenues are continually invested back into the systems of the customers, which benefits the community. New Braunfels Utilities makes an annual transfer to the City of New Braunfels, which in turn helps to pay for services such as fire, police, and parks.
