New Braunfels Utilities is Accepting Applications for NBU University Class of 2020

(New Braunfels, TX – October, 22, 2019) – New Braunfels Utilities (NBU) is now accepting applications for its third NBU University program, set to begin on February 4, 2020. NBU University is a series of classes that meets once a month, for five months, at various NBU facilities, to gain a comprehensive overview of how the municipal, community-owned utility operates. Participants will hear from experts in electric, water and wastewater, and support services.

“NBU University offers a unique opportunity for customers to get a first-hand, behind-the-scenes look at how water, sewer, and electricity services are provided in our community,” said CEO of NBU. “With more than 300 employees, NBU provides essential services are delivered to every customer, 365 days a year.”

The objectives for NBU University participants include:

- A better understanding of NBU operations
- Understand the relationship between the citizens, the NBU Board of Trustees, and NBU employees
- Understand the planning process for capital projects, and how those projects are implemented
- Understand the budget planning process, development review process, responsibilities, and functions of NBU
- Receive interactive learning experiences through case studies, site tours, group discussion, and hands-on experiences
- Understand the Vision, Mission, and Core Values of NBU

Due to space constraints, enrollment is limited. Classes will meet from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. on the first Tuesday of the month, February through June, 2020. Applicants must be at least 17 years of age, and be a customer of NBU. Applications are being accepted now, through December 20, 2019. To download your application, visit: nbutexas.com/NBU-University, or pick up an application at the reception desk at 263 Main Plaza from 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Completed applications may be emailed to pquidley@nbutexas.com, or dropped off at the reception desk at 263 Main Plaza.
